East Union Lutheran Church Weekly Announcements

Sixth Sunday After Pentecost, July 4, 2010

Our Life Together

The gospel reading for next Sunday, July 11, is Luke 10:25–37. Jesus is challenged to explain what is involved in obeying the Great Commandment. Jesus tells a parable rich in surprises: those expected to show pity display hard hearts, while the lowly give and receive unexpected and lavish mercy.

Other readings for next Sunday are Deuteronomy 30:9–14 and Psalm 25:1–10.

Town Hall Meeting. On July 25, at 10:15 a.m., we'll hold our final Town Meeting to hear the Congregational Mission Profile from the T-Team. This is the T-Team's last job, and then the call committee can prepare for the pastoral interviews.

Thank you, Chaplain Cheryl Szabo, for once more sharing God's word with us today, leading us in worship, and sharing Holy Communion. Pr. Szabo is chaplain at Fairview Seminary Home in Red Wing.

Pastor Brian is on vacation through July 7. You can still reach him via cell phone at 952-232-7247, or e-mail him or leave a message with the office, and we'll get hold of him.

Discipleship Bible Study, this Wednesday, July 7, 6:30 p.m. This week's topic: "A Kind Man's Story."

New summer office hours are Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. You can always leave a message outside those hours. If you need to reach Pr. Brian or Tracie Peterson, use their cell phone numbers. (See last page of announcements for those numbers.)

60+ Group will not meet during July and August. See you in September.

Copies of EULC constitution and by-laws are available in the library and on-line. If you want a copy to take home, call the parish office, 952-448-3450 or download copies from our Web site, eulc.org. From the menu at the top of the page, click on “Resources.”

Not Receiving a Monthly Newsletter? If you aren’t but would like to receive it—or if you want to be removed from the mailing list—please notify the office, 952-448-3450, or e-mail us: office@eulc.org.

Youth & Family

We Love Kids! How we welcome children in church influences their response to God and the household of faith. God put the “wiggles” in children; parents shouldn’t feel they have to suppress it in God’s house. To help children feel welcome in our sanctuary, we provide activity bags and children’s bulletins by the ushers’ table in the entrance of the church, and twice a month we invite them to the front of our church sanctuary for a message in their own language. Also, an unstaffed nursery is available in the parish center for parents’ use.

In the Community

Celebrate Summer at All Saints Lutheran, Norwood-Young America, on Saturday, July 24, from 4:00 to 11:00 p.m. Classic car show, motorcycle run, volleyball and other games, children’s carnival, bingo, food and beverages, live music. Parking at Central High School. Admission: $2.00 per person, $5.00 per family. Information: 952-467-3388.

“Agnus Day” appears courtesy of www.agnusday.org

Saint Mark’s in Shakopee holds its annual parish festival, Julifest, on Saturday and Sunday, July 24 and 25. Bake and crafts sale, games for young and old, quilts, silent auction, raffle, food, beverages. On Saturday, 6:00 p.m., outdoor polka mass followed by street dancing from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. On Sunday, 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., continuous entertainment from the Country Polkateers and the Jolly Ramblers.

Public health immunization clinic to be offered on July 12 and July 26, 3:00–5:00 p.m., Public Health Office, Chaska Government Center, 600 East Fourth Street. Appointment-only clinic, 952-361-1329. Parents must bring record of past immunizations. Donation is requested for MnVFC shots, but no one will be denied shots if unable to pay for that vaccine. A fee will be requested for the low-cost vaccine.

Adults 55+: RSVP of Carver County wants your strengths and skills to aid area nonprofits in achieving their missions. We match your interests with a nonprofit that works to positively change the lives of those in need. Mary Jane Horton, outreach coordinator, 952-607-9223 or mhorton@voamn.org.
