Parents

God put the “wobble” in children; don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house. How we welcome children in church influences their response to God and the household of faith. To help children feel welcome, we provide activity bags and children's bulletins at the ushers' table in the church entrance, and each week we invite them to the front of our church sanctuary for a message in their own language. An unstaffed nursery is available in the next-door parish center for your use. Ask an usher.

Prayer Corner

To add a name to or remove a name from the Prayer Corner, notify the EULC office, 952-448-3450, or office@eulc.org. Names will remain on the prayer list approximately two weeks unless the office is otherwise notified.

East Union Lutheran Church Weekly Announcements

Sunday, August 21 (Pentecost 9)

Our Life Together

The Gospel reading for next Sunday, August 28 (Pentecost 10), is Matthew 16:21-28. After Peter confesses that Jesus is “the Messiah, the Son of the living God” (16:16), Jesus reveals the ultimate purpose of his ministry. These words prove hard to accept, even for a disciple whom Jesus has called a “rock.” Other readings for next Sunday are Jeremiah 15:15-21, Psalm 26:1-8, and Romans 12:9-21.

Pr. Tom's One-Minute Stewardship Sermon.

This morning we will participate in an adoption ritual. Through her baptism, Madelyn will be welcomed into the Lord's family. Madelyn becomes a fellow member of the body of Christ. We will promise to care for her and support her in her new life in Christ. We do this in a number of ways for all those who are baptized through our weekly offerings. Thank you for your faithful stewardship.

Gustavus Adolphus Choir To Sing Here

On March 30, 2012, the GA Choir will perform in our sanctuary as part of their roots tour and part of the college's 150 anniversary. East Union was the original site of the college.

Rally Sunday is September 18, 2011. Along with Sunday school starting there will be a Potluck, Blessing of the Back packs and New this year a car show.

We invite everyone with a '20 years old or more' car to bring it to the church for display.

Thank You
